

5th Annual

Light up the Town

“A Gathering for all to enjoy”

FOXBOROUGH TREE LIGHTING CELEBRATION

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 24

Decorate the Common

Start off your morning by spending some time with neighbors and friends sprucing up our town for the holidays.

Foxborough Common 9:00am-Noon

Join the Jaycees on the common and help decorate our common with lights, bows and garland around the lamp posts.

Jaycees will be accepting donations of cereal for their Cereal Drive for Pine Street Inn.

Make an Ornament

Children are encouraged to create an ornament that can be taken home and placed on their family tree.

From 4:00-5:00pm

The Boyden Library

Partners: Boyden Library and Foxborough Recreation

Tree Lighting Ceremony

Join us in a celebration of community!

Foxborough Common 5:00-6:00pm

DIY Photo Booth • Mr. and Mrs. Claus • Carolers • Cookies • Hot Cocoa • Elite Dancers • Candy Canes and more

Partners: Foxborough Recreation, Foxborough Fire & Rescue, Foxboro Jaycees, Cahill Lawn Care, Grace Chapel and the Marilyn Rodman Performing Arts Center

Movie

End the evening by enjoying the showing of The Polar Express at the Marilyn Rodman Performing Arts Center.

Starts at 6:30pm (directly after the tree lighting)

Free to all!

Sponsored by: The Foxboro Jaycees

Jaycees will be accepting donations of cereal for their Cereal Drive for Pine Street Inn.

For more information visit: www.foxborojaycees.org or www.foxbororec.com